have retreated towards Columbus, Miss.

Most of Bragge's army left Teanessee on the 24th of June, for Viginia. It was understood in Richmond, ten days ago, that Lee's design was not upon Feuneyirania, but apon Washington. The Confederates had staked everything upon the capters of the Capital, which they think will insure their independence.

Ool. Ed. Hatch is making his grand rounds in West Teanessee, and will soon be heard from in the direction of Jackson. He is after the rebels in that direction.

The Teanessee Union Convention resolved to ask Gov. Johnson to appoint an election for members of the Legislature, on the first Thursday in August, to elect Senators, and to arrange the districts for Congress. It is an derstood that an election will be held.

From Capi. Clarke, just from Fort Pillow, I learn that the rebel Gen. Richardson, and
Col. Jame Forest, with a cavalry force, varionally estimated at from 5,000 to 5,000, were at

The fewer is not between conscription and no conscription, but between conscription and no conscription, but between order and an archy. The question is not whether this particular law shall stand, but whether law itself thall be transloid under foot. It this day to be at the utier mercy of a mob? Have the statutes of the land to await the approval of all the Jack Cades of society before they care attain any binding force? Nobody ever imagined that the conscription act would aditeliher rebels in the Santh, or rebel sympathicases to the North. No valuable law is ever passed that has the favor of the civil underly like the the statutes of the plant while the conscription of our public legislation, and you will specify be a water of the President. The whole was executed with a passed that has the favor of the civil underly like the spirit which dominated this city yesterday is to be left to its own working. It is a finate to our whole civil and societ organization as the plague is to the physical constitution of man. To give way before it is simply to have destruction.

It is no time to regret the oversights of the past. We have lost two full seasons in putting our conscripts into the field. We have foolishly allowed on every hand, a prejudice to be fostered, both direct and implied, against the principle of conscription. It is not right. The conscript holds as honorable place in this war. In thou sands of cases the drafted soldier will experience a sense of relief, that whereas he had not the resolution to decide against home and civil ties, the lot decides for him, and places him where his heart has urged him to go, in the army of his country. There are, as there have been, thousands whose impulses to enter the service have not been strong enough to break the tender bonds of social him.

The draft is honorable to its subject. It is indispensable in the safety of the nation. As honorable and indispensable, it must Moriention and folly.

rebels had not the means to raise one. This is further shown by the fact that with all his best efforts for weeks past Johnston has not been able to collect force enough to attack Grant in the rear. Holmes, though attacking Premise with a vasily superior force, was terribly thrashed, the fact showing that he had drawn his forces from the dregs of the Southern "white trash." The chivalry would have made a much more determined fight.

Let the success now attained be vigorously followed up, and before many months at most peace and prosperity will again bless the land. RIOTS AND THE DRAFT.

Our dispatches report trouble in various sections, about the draft, and yesterday morning, a riot is reported in the Third District of New York. If the Copperhads mean to make an issue with the Government over the draft, the sconer the loyal patrictic masses know it, the better. In this matter of the draft, the Government must be sustained or all law and all safety are clean gone forever. It would be well for all our catizens to look at this subject calmily. If tresponsible scoundrels—demagogues who ligence, true courage, unyielding vigor and endurance, and so well armed and discip-lined that it is surpassed by no other army on earth, will, under such leadership, sustained and animated by the united heart and voice of the whole country, achieve and its late great success, it is marching on with a firmer and steadler tread to new victories. No PLINCHING NOW

We ought to have had the draft months ago. We have been too mealy mouthed about it. We have allowed the great principle without which no nation can crist, to be weakened in the dangerous embrace of a sentiment. The draft is the Government calling for the duty the citizen owes the State. How long would a Government maintain itself were it to receive only the voluntary contributions of its people instead of taxes and revenues. And it will be no safer to leave it to the people to voluntarily engage in the stern and protracted duty of detending the Government. It is a sacrifice that calls for both property and like. Is it right that, the willing should alone bear this burden? Manifestly not. And, furthermore the experience of the nast two years shows it is actually courting-danger from a new quarter to exclusively summon faithful clitrens to the ranks, and thereby lower the standard of loyalty at home. It will not do to set welves to guard sheep folds It is not take to make such a partition of citizen duty as shall leave the voting to the Copperheads.

Gen. Grant captured in Vickeburg 180,000 rations of ealt, 40,000 pounds of bacon, be sides a quantity of beans, sugar and meliaseas. The bacon was set aside as five days' rations for 16,000 picked men who were to cut theirway out. The men found it would be lusposable, and the project was abandoned. On the 3d hast, the Medical Director of the Confederate hospital sent word to Gen. Pennberton that the men were dying for something to eat. Gen. Pemberton immediately called a conneil of war, and at 3 o'clock the negotiations for captualisin commenced. The number of guns captured is 300 pieces of light artillery and 27 siege guns, besides arms for every man in Vicksburg, and 15,000 Rafield rides for Kirby Smith's army.

Smith's army got to the other side of Vicksburg, and were seen on the Louisians shore, but owing to the fieg of the free waving over the ramparts, he retired in good order for parts unknown.

FROM ST. PAUL.

Is pecial Dispatch to the Calcago Tribuna. I Ser. Part., July 16, 1984.

Last Friday forenous four Indiant were discovered within half a mile of the stockade at Wansmah, Monker county, where twenty soldiers were stationed. They were driving off a huidred head of cattle. Being pursued by the soldiers, the cattle were recovared, but the Indians escaped. They are growing bolder in their advances. This is the nearest approach yet made to a military post.

Within four miles of Charwate., Wright county, a citizen was last week shot at by an Indian, but fortunately escaped with only an arrow in his fast. These occurrences are just frequent enough to sharm the people, and the tion against the rooter, stating that oreshall be preserved. Measures are being itaken by Gen. Wool, which will probably prove effectual in quelling the riot.

Every negro who has been seen by the mob, has been seither murdewed or horribly beaten. Some twenty have thus far been killed.

One or two newspaper offices have been threatened. The citizens are arming. The colored orphan asylum has been dealroyed by the mob, and Allerton's Hotel, as Bell's Head, burned. While the mob was passing down Second Avenue, comebody is an armory fred on them from a window, when they fired the building, which was also destroyed.

About three o'clock p. m., the mob had moved further down town, when the firemen went to work on the burning buildings on Third avenue. One house was entered where a hidy had just been confined. A number of articles were stolen, but no violence perpetrated.

At 3 o'clock, Mr. Joseph Howard, late city editor of the New York Times, was attacked by the mob; howing "Here's an Abolitionis," and were about to hasp him to a lamp post, when the mob's attention was diverted, when he ran for his life, the crowd chasing him, when they robbed him of his watch and chain, diamond breast-pin, and thirty-three dollars in money.

He was with diffently taken to an engine house, the dgors of which resisted the efforts of the mob, and finally he was taken sway, his injuries were serious.

The mob tore up iron finces to arm themselves, and about three o'clock processions of suffices were serious.

Among our officers killed, the number of whom is very small, was Lieut. Onlone, of the 25th Missouri. Lieut. Burnett, of one of the Indians regiments, was also killed.

The regiments engaged are the following: 38d lows, 39th lows, 38th lows, 33d Missouri, 35th Missouri, 35th Missouri, 35th Missouri, 35th Indians and 5th Kansas cavalry.

Gen. Frentiss was materially assisted by Gen. Frentiss was materially assisted by Gen. Salomon of Wisconsin, a brother of the Governor. Aid was also rendered by his Aids, Maj. J. O. Pierce, and Lisuts. C. H. Townsend, 39th Wis., and E. Jones, 50th Ill.

To depict the feeling here among the officers and nees, over the repulse, would be impossible. They feel as though they were in every sense of the word masters of the situation, and as though in a smaller way they had celebrated the glorious Fourth about as entimal-astically as their fellow soldiers at Vicksburg.

The mob tore up from fences to arm themselves, and about three o'clock processions of suffians thieres and women, armed with cluss, pistois, and hars of from, marched up First Avenus, threatening all connected with the conscription.

The Arsenal was threatened, but the presence of a detatchment of the 10th volunteers prevented an attack. Howflers are stationed there, and at the 7th regiment armory, loaded with cannister, which with a used on the first demonstration.

A whole block on Third svenue was burned. A person named Andrews, of Vermont, who has lately harsngued meetings at Cooper Institute, seemed to be the leader of the mob, and addressed them near the ruins while the destruction was going on, denomicing the President, and advised the people to organize to resist the draft.

The howling devils, after this harrangue, proceeded to the large and beactiful dwilling on the corner of Versy-serentis street and Lexington evenue, which was completely sacked, the library, glasses, sofas, chairs, beds, &c., being thrown into the street. They then set fire to the house, and terrible yells, burg Battle Field.

FROM ST. LOUIS.

Br. Louis, July 10.—A large and enthusiatic meeting was held at the Court House, last night, which was pardicipated in by those opposed to the action of the late State Convention is adopting the present scheme for emancipation, and in declaring the acception of alave property from taxalion, in denying the people the privilege of voting for the election of releva, and refusing the people the privilege of voting upon the ordinance of emancipation. Mayor Filley presided, Speeches were made by Chas. D. Drake, Henry T. Elsir, C. P. Johns A. B. Grais Brown, and others. Resolutione were adopted, setting forth that the action of the State Convention, at its last session was arbitrary, tyrannical, and in opposition to the plainest principles of republican government, and proved the body from which it emanated to be unworthy of the respect and confisence of a free people; that although described in its title an "ordinance for the exaccipation of alaves," we can regard the convention's smachment in no other light than a covert attempt to strengthen and perprituate slavery in Missouri under cover of the diaguise of a professed purpose to accomplish freedom; that the same time so unfair, as to equally merit our condemnation and contempt; that we hold the people of Missouri as citizens of a State occupying a place in a Republican Government, one entitled to the principles of popular sovereignty and the right to choose their own rulers; that, in condemning the action of the Convention as a body, we except from our demanisation for hemmany the except from our demanisation for hemmany the action of the Convention as a body, we except from our demanisation for hemmany the action of the Convention as a body, we except from our demanisation for hemmany the action of the Convention as a body, we except from our demanisation for hemmany the action of the Convention as a body, we except from our demanisation for hemmany the action of the Convention for the mangetty of the day. The great feature of the Fourth at Hariford was the ascension of two balloons—the "One stitution" and tue "Stars and Stripes." It is estimated that forty thousand persons witnessed the grand soried display. The "Stars and Stripes." In the stars and Stripes. The "Stars and Stripes" went up met, Mr. Bassett, the conductor, taking with him a est attached to a parachute, and a rooster, which he proposed to send down from above when the should reach a certain altitude. There was but little six stirring, and the balloon went straight up for a distance of shout a mile and a haff. After reaching, this height it was lost sight of is the clouds. The cut and rooster were then thrown out, both of them being distinguished by the crowd as they full. The former came down sale in the northern part of the city, and the recester, who came down on his own hoot, brought up crowing a short distance above the city.

The "Constitution" was set at liberty afew moments after the liberation of the "Stars and Stripes," and soared up into the
